New Narumi - for that special dish

Only at GIBPAT

Looking for that 'WOW' factor?

Imagine serving up your special menu items on this stunning new bone china from Narumi. There's no need to replace your whole setting these days, simply add a few more interesting shaped pieces for a mini update. It's not only more economical, but means your settings can keep evolving and won't start to look stale or old. Have a look on the GIBPAT website to see the whole range (see how to find it on the left here).
